1,000 km Shikoku Circuit Route Ehime Prefecture Region 328.2km

Besides the scenery provided by the Shikoku mountain ranges which include Mount Ishizushi, the highest point in western Japan, and the beautiful sea route along the Seto Inland Sea and the Uwa Sea, there are a number of spots to stop at such as the Dogo Onsen in Matsuyama, which is said to be the oldest onsen in Japan. Enjoy a slow and relaxing bicycle trip through the scenery and tourist spots.

This course has little change in elevation, allowing for relaxed cruising and side glances at the peaceful Seto Inland Sea.

Shimonada Station, a platform in the middle of the scenery of the Seto Inland Sea that you have to check out at least once.
Okubo, Futami-cho, Iyo City

Jako-ten is made by turning local fry into surimi, with bones and skin and all, and frying it in oil.

This course is rich in changes of scenery, from the sea to mountains to villages, with such sites as the Uwa Sea coastline and the distinguished areas of prefectural mandarin orange production.

Try Uwajima's rice and sea bream dish with green onions, raw egg, and sea bream sashimi marinated in a special tare sauce!

Fried pork and egg over rice, the king of B-level gourmet food. It always wins the top place in the B-1 Gran Prix.

Hot spring facilities such as the Yunoura Onsen, the Hondani Onsen, and the Nibukawa Onsen are scattered all along this course.

The specialty dish of the Saijo City area is "teppan Napolitan," a hot dish cooked over a griddle.

Minetopia Besshi theme park, part of the Besshi Copper Mine Industrial Heritage Site. The entrance to the Machu Picchu of the East.
707-3 Tatsukawa-cho, Niihama City

Monument installed at the Ehime Prefectural Government Office as a testament to the Shikoku Circuit and Taiwan Circuit mutual exchange.
4-4-2 Ichibancho, Matsuyama City

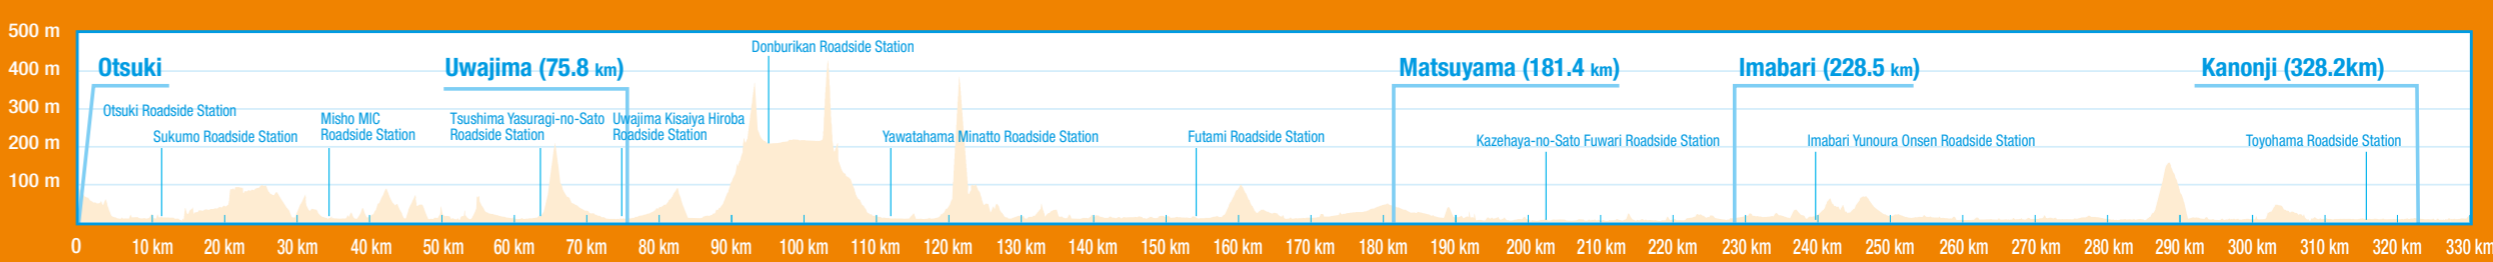

The Unomachi streets still have many charming merchant houses with white plaster walls and lattice windows built between the middle of the Edo period and the early Showa period.
Unomachi, Uwa-cho, Seiyu City

Uwajima Castle, one of the 12 surviving keeps in Japan, from the top of which there is a panoramic view of the coast of Uwajima.
